— Sermon Notes —
Sermon on the Mount
Matthew 6:1-4

Do not _____ your _____ righteousness before men.

Those who _____ to be recognized have _____ their reward.

Live your life _____ for the
_____ of God.

Personal Study Questions:

Can you name some of the 'private' practices of righteousness that Jesus was speaking about in Matthew 6?

Read Matthew 5:16 and Matthew 6:1. Do these verses contradict each other? How are they different? How do we make sense of both of them together in the context of the Sermon on the Mount?

How do we combat the temptation to be recognized for the good that we have done?

Jesus gives a clear warning: those who give alms to the poor to be seen have received their reward. Why is this the case?

Read Matthew 6:3. What is the meaning of this verse? How do we live this out in our lives?

When people say we are to 'live for an audience of One,' what does that mean to you? Will we ever really be free from living for the applause of others?

What would be your concise explanation of Matthew 6:1-4 if you were telling it to a stranger who had never read these verses before?

In your opinion, what was the most important takeaway from the sermon this week and why? How can you apply what stood out to you?
